

SI5500 Digital Readout

user leaflet

S15500

The SI5500 is a multi function Digital Readout for use with Solartron Metrology's Orbit products. The Readout can interface up to 31 Orbit Modules and gives the user the option to select data display formats and program metrology functions.

The instrument has intuitive menu system further details on the instruments functionality can be found on the Solartron Metrology website. www.solartronmetrolgy.com. Information regarding the Solartron Orbit Measurement system is also on the website. The main menu functions are shown below.

